

Round 1

Are you meeting your job application goals in HireAC?

Not on Track

You haven't started applying or have submitted very few applications. It's important to increase your efforts now! Support is available to help you get back on track!

Partially on Track

You're moving in the right direction but may not be applying consistently. A little more consistency will go a long way!

On Track!

Great job! You've hit the Round One application target and are actively applying (approximately 20% of postings). Continue building on this progress!

Keep in mind that the number of applications needed may vary depending on current labour market conditions and the competitiveness of your field!
